New Mrsn -We have jet to class copy of a new and beautiful song from Mr. D. P. Faulds, No. 70 Main street, enti-1led "Oh! say not we have parted for Words and music by D. W. Haley It is one of the sweetest songs we have seen for some time. The arrange ment is very good, and it is not difficult It has a splendid lithographic title-page which was executed by German & Brother, of this city. This song is dedicated to one of Louisville's fair daughters.

AN AFFECTIVE LETTER -Our read re ubt remem or the recent passage by the WOODLAWN TROTTING RACES.—The tro New York Legislature of a bill preventing ting races over the Woodlawn Course will begin on the first Monday in July and cou the use of free pass s upon railroads which bill was to take off at Cethwith tinue through the week. We anticipat The rew low long inexorably enforced by fine sport on that occasion, and no doubt the public are looking forward to it with Railroad he jet off the cars at Utica a interest. The official announcement of Fort Wayne (Indiana) editor who had a particulars will be published in a few "pass, but no money to pay his fare and days, and the liberal purses that will be who thus tells his sorrows in an aff fig offered promise to bring to Woodlawn many of the best trotting horses of the country.

ances, the triumph of the Evangelies party is fully secured. A most important event of this tenden is the determined action of the Consistor of the Reformed State Church in Pari against one of the leaders of the Ration alistic party, Martin-Paschond. The in Lintory in this important action was taken & year and a half ago, when the Consistory refused to renew the license of Mr. Atha Dase Coquerel, jr., on account of the het-Crodoxy of his religious opinions, which were the same as those held by Mr. Pasch oud, whose deputy he was. Mr. Paschond. who was originally appointed pastor to a Paris church in 1836, but in consequence of ill-health has been unable to perform Lis functions, except at rare intervals, was called apon by the Consistory to ap-Point another clergyman whose doctrine and teachings were more in accordance the tenets of the Reformed Church. bir.
